

Why Exhibit?

SF GIS EXPO

August 26-27, 2021

Visibility: From conference collateral, to signage and social media, you can be sure our attendees will know who you are. We are the only GIS organization providing FREE registration to this conference. Our Expo continues to bring together the best in the industry! Just as important, your partnership allows us to continue our tradition of excellence and expand our mission.

Audience: Participants will come from a wide range of backgrounds: administrators, architects, engineers, surveyors, contractors, developers, educators, planners, students, and industry experts. Everyone shares a commitment to learning about the solutions, ideas and products that can further their work.

Opportunity: This relationship-building conference not only allows for valuable face-to-face time with participants during the Exhibit hall hours, but also with other industry leaders and professionals at networking events such as breaks, evening social events, and even in halls and elevators!
